BLACK WOMEN IN AMERICAN CULTURE AND HISTORY African American women (in our churches, community groups, literary societies, sororities, advocacy organizations, entertainment and sports) have played in a myriad of roles in the making of our nation. As is a well-known fact, their subjectivity to a long history of stereotypes about their sexuality, morality, spirituality, and intellect, African American women have never succumbed to victimhood. Thus, they have gone forward to uplift themselves, their families, and their community in our society. 			1 Craft Class 10:00 AM Hope & Happiness Senior Citizen Club Meeting 1:00 PM Men's Usher Board Meeting 7:00 PM 	2   	3 National Wear Red Day® in Support of Women's Heart Disease Awareness 	4 Church Meeting 10:00 AM South Carolina Club 12 Noon Deaconess Board 12:15 PM
